Note from Mrs. Senn: For your convenience, student supply packs for the 2008 – 2009 school year may be pre-ordered. Your child's school supplies will be packaged and delivered to the classroom in August before school starts. If you opt to purchase your child's school supplies elsewhere and have difficulty finding the Mead Learn-to-Letter with Raised Ruling tablet or the Crayola vinyl art smock, they may be purchased at the school store. If I have specified a name brand, please know that it is because I have tried the others on the market (Rose Art, Prang, Lysol, etc....) and found that they do not perform as well as the ones I have asked for based on what we use them for in our classroom.
